

Customized Tour of Southern Italy (Sample)

Itinerary Route

12 days, 11 nights

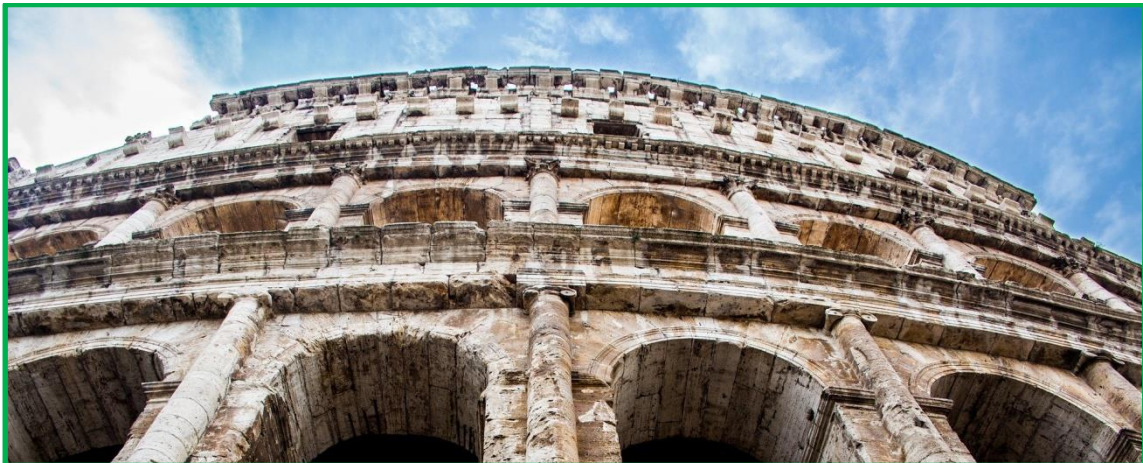

Rome – Naples - Sorrento – Amalfi – Tropea – Messina - Rome

Highlights

NY to Rome (2 nights)

Take your overnight flight from Newark or JFK to Rome.

Arrive to Italy during the morning, head to the hotel to rest before heading out to explore a part of the eternal city, however, being that we will be returning to Rome at the end of the trip, we will be limited to one or two activities.

Rome to Naples (3 nights)

Good morning. After breakfast, enjoy your espresso before taking the regional train from Rome to Naples. On the train ride you surely enjoy the beautiful views of the towns on route to Naples. Upon arriving to Naples, check in to your hotel and get ready to discover this wonderful city. Being that you will have a vehicle, your stay will include visits to Pompey, Vesuvius, Salerno, Sorrento, and some breathtaking seaside cities on the Amalfi Coast.

Naples to Tropea (1 night)

Make your way down the coast on your way to Sicily. On your way down visit the city of Tropea, check in to your hotel and put on your walking shoes. You will want to wander around this picturesque town and bask in the energy that makes the south of Italy so unique.

Tropea to Messina (Sicily) (2 nights)

Depart from Tropea and head down the coast and take the ferry from mainland Italy to the ancient region of Sicily. You will surely enjoy crossing the Straits of Messina by ferry and live the experience as a local.

Messina – Rome (3 nights)

Now that you have created these wonderful memories visiting the most popular cities in the South of Italy, it is time to return to the capital to enjoy your last couple of days in Italy. Your direct flight will only take roughly 1.5 hours.

Upon arriving in Rome, you will check in to your hotel and continue to explore the eternal city. Your itinerary in Rome will consist of visiting the Coliseum, Vatican City, Sistine Chapel, the Basilica, Spanish Steps, Catacombs and other possible places of interest.

Once you have confirmed that this is an itinerary that may interest you and your group, we will go ahead with booking the entire trip and provide you with a detailed list of how everything will take place.

In this itinerary we tried to include everything you wanted to see while taking into consideration the distances and means of transportation.
